A burglary, which for its boldness, completely eclipses anything of the kind ever attempted in Newark, was successfully executed Wednesday night, when three men forced an entrance to the jewelry store of F. J. Pratt & Company at Church and Third streets; the men escaping with their booty which is roughly valued at $500 to $1,000.

The brazen daring of the three men stamps them without a shadow of a doubt as professionals of the first water and the great degree of success of their coup was due entirely to the boldness of the operators.

At an hour when dozens of persons were passing the big show windows every minute, one of the trio entered the place after forcing a rear door and deliberately picked from the big front show window the most valuable articles of jewelry, and dropped them into a black oil-cloth bag.

When the alarm was sounded by Mrs. J. W. Weakley, of Indiana and Front streets, and Miss Hazel Swan, aged 13, the two confederates on the outside signaled to the operator within. He rushed out the back door and dashed down the alley across Church street, past the Licking creamery and disappeared in the darkness. His two companions who guarded the front while he worked, walked east on Church street and were soon lost to view.

Although the police officers were on the scene within five minutes after the men were discovered at work, their escape was successful and the all night search of officers in plain clothes failed to locate them.

Chief of Police Blizard and Captain Swank were soon on the case and worked diligently most of the night. Both men worked in plain clothes and searched all saloons and resorts for suspicious characters. All outgoing freight trains were watched and the two heads of the department made a thorough search of the B. & O. yards without success.

It was probably 8:15 o'clock when Mrs. Weakley and Miss Swan paused in front of the window to look at the display. The girl noticed the man picking up the articles from the window and remarked that he looked like a burglar.

Mrs. Weakley caught the idea, saying that he was one of the store employees putting the jewels away for the night. But Miss Swan insisted that he was a burglar because he was working so rapidly.

The two decided to watch and see if he went to the safe with his bagful of valuables and when he jumped over the railing which surrounds the window and knocked off an electric lamp shade in the act, they were convinced that the man's purposes were not good.

Mrs. Weakley stopped a boy and asked him to find a policeman, but the lad failed to locate one. A man who was passing was told of her suspicions and he looked for an officer, but without success. Mrs. Weakley then stepped into the Y. M. C. A. lobby and it was from that point that police headquarters was notified and Captain Swank and Wagonman George McClure hurried to the store.

According to the story of Mrs. Weakley, the man working inside the store was standing in the window. He worked rapidly and picked up the articles, dropping them into the bag held in his left hand. He scooped up a number of gold bracelets, set with valuable jewels, and dropped them into the bag.

In his hurry, the thief dropped many of the brooches and rings from their boxes or trays and he found several empty boxes in his bag when he took an invoice of the loot.

After the officers arrived and a careful examination was made, it was found that the men attempted to use a "jammy" on the rear door. It was protected by a heavy steel bar on the inside, but in this the thieves were undaunted. They merely broke the glass in the door, reached in, lifted the bar from its fastenings and then completed their work with the "jammy." This instrument was a heavy butchers' steel.

The force of the instrument used to open the door can be realized by the fact that the panel which held the lock was broken and splintered.

It is the belief of the two who saw the man at work, that the operator within the store was protected by the two confederates who watched from the sidewalk at the corner.

It is apparent that the men feared only the approach of a policeman. The presence of citizens did not worry them in the least until the alarm was given that they were recognized as thieves. Then the man inside ceased his operations and fled.

When Captain Swank and Wagon-

LA FOLLETTE WILL CONTINUE FIGHT 'TIL GAVEL FALLS

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Without referring to Governor Chase S. Osborn's suggestion in a speech at Lansing, Mich., that Senator Robert M. La Follette withdraw from the presidential race, the La Follette national headquarters here yesterday issued a statement denying that Mr. La Follette had any intention of withdrawing.

The statement was given out by Walter L. Houser, chairman of the national progressive Republican campaign committee, and is as follows: "Once and for all I wish to set at rest the reports that Senator La Follette will withdraw or that his friends will withdraw his name as a candidate for president. The campaign for his nomination will continue until the gavel falls, declaring who is the nominee of the Republican convention for president."

The plan to have Senator La Follette extend his present trip two weeks longer, to enable him to speak in Minnesota, North and South Dakota and other middle western states, was abandoned last night, according to a statement given out at La Follette headquarters. The present tour will be concluded this week.

Joliet, Ill., Jan. 4.—Still suffering from the effects of ptomaine poisoning which attacked him late last night, Senator Robert M. La Follette spoke for half an hour today in a crowded theatre. Several hundred people were unable to gain admission. Senator La Follette arrived in care of physicians and was taken at once to the hotel and given treatment. After his brief speech he and his party left on a special trolley car for Morris and other Illinois towns.

Ever Been Attempt-

NEWARK MAN AT PANAMA

Interesting Description of the Mammoth Ditch and Big Work Now Under Way.

(By Fred C. Evans.)

On Board S. S. Abangarez, enroute to New Orleans—Jan. 1.—Complying with the Advocate's request before leaving Newark, will give you an account of the Panama Canal as we saw it during our stay in the zone.

In a letter it is impossible to describe the magnitude of an enterprise, such as the Panama Canal. Nothing so great has ever been undertaken and handled so successfully. The French failed, but America with her skill, thrift and progressive-ness, will complete the greatest engineering feat of the age one year sooner than was estimated by our most conservative engineers.

Our trip from New Orleans on the United Fruit Company S. S. Cartago, was very pleasant. The service being first class. We took the coast trip, stopping at Port Barrios, Guatemala, and at Port Limon, Costa Rica, going to San Jose through the banana and coffee plantations, a distance of 104 miles to an elevation of 5,000 feet, seeing every phase of tropical growth. There is not only one Horse Shoe Bend to delight the traveler, but you may, for luck, find a horse-shoe bend every few miles and the mountain scenery with its tropical growth is beyond description. Coccolili groves, bread fruit trees, innumerable and unnameable palms and tropical plants. We passed two volcanoes in action, went through the destroyed city Cartago, where one and a half years ago, over 3,000 people were killed during an earthquake and only one building left standing and that an American built frame station. It was a city of 40,000 people, now only a few houses rebuilt.

You feel very rich in this country. You give five dollars to them and get more than ten dollars of "fin" money.

Our brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Evans, met us at the boat in Colon, going direct to Las Cascaidas, where they are stationed at present. We spent a delightful Christmas with the Sullivans, having a Christmas tree in honor of Frederick and Bob Evans and Edward Sullivan, Jr., a fine turkey dinner, temperature 76 degrees, which added to the comfort and pleasure and novelty of the experience.

The canal is 50 miles from deep water to deep water, and from shore to shore 40 miles. A vessel passing through Limon Bay enters a series of three locks at Gatun, where it is lifted 85 feet to the level of Gatun lake, which will have an area of 164 square miles. The vessels will pass through this lake in a channel varying from 1000 to 500 feet in width, for a distance of 24 miles, to Bas Obispo, where it will enter Culebra cut which is 9 miles in length, a bottom width of 300 feet to Pedro Miguel. There it enters a lock where it is lowered 30 feet to a small lake through this lake one and one half miles to Miraflores. Here it will enter Miraflores Locks and be lowered to sea level, passing out to the Pacific in a channel 8-12 miles long, bottom width 500 feet.

Gatun dam, which forms Gatun lake, will be nearly one and a half miles long, one half mile wide at the base, 400 feet wide at water surface, and 100 feet wide at top, at an elevation of 115 feet above sea level, 30 feet above level of lake. The interior of the dam will be formed from a natural mixture of sand and clay, dredged by hydraulic process from pits above and below the dam.

REAR ADMIRAL ROBLEY D. EVANS.

Known Throughout the Nation as "Fighting Bob" Who Died Suddenly of Acute Indigestion Yesterday. He Was 65 Years Old.

HUNDREDS UNABLE TO GAIN ADMITTANCE TO MEEKER MEETING

Whether it was the novelty of a minister of the gospel addressing a "wet" meeting or whether it was interest in the cause, the fact remains nevertheless that in the neighborhood of 500 men were turned away from the Newark Auditorium last evening who had gone there to hear the Rev. Jacob E. Meeker of St. Louis talk on the subject, "Why I am opposed to Prohibition under the Rose law."

The hundreds of people that packed the large Auditorium were well repaid for their trouble for Rev. Meeker was one of the most convincing as well as eloquent speakers that has ever been heard in Newark.

The stage was occupied by a number of the city's representative business men and the orator of the evening was introduced by Mr. O. C. Jones, president of the Business Men's and Tax-Payers Association.

Mr. Jones preceded his introduction by stating that he wished to refute the statement published by his dry friends that the Association was a myth and exhibited the signatures of the 240 Newark business men comprising the members of the association, and stated that he had them in his possession open to the inspection of any one that desired to view them. He further stated that he wished to refute the statement of the "Drys" that the members were not tax-payers, for an inspection of the membership roll would prove that they were among the city's heaviest tax-payers and representative business men. Mr. Jones then introduced the speaker and he held his audience with rapt attention for the next two hours and a half and even then they had not tired of him for the reverend gentleman waxed eloquent and presented his facts in a most convincing manner.

Breslau, Germany, Jan. 4.—Professor Felix S. Dahn, the well known historian, novelist and poet, died here today at the age of 75.

A WAY TO HELP NEWARK.

Patronize your home merchants and your home mechanics.

The more money you spend away from home the poorer your town will be. The more you spend among Newark business men or deposit in local financial institutions for your future use the better will it be for Newark.

Few people stop to think that buying from a mail order house or from stores in Columbus or elsewhere retards the prosperity of Newark—your own prosperity as well as that of your neighbors. Sending money away from Newark is enriching outside corporations at the expense of your home town. It has been said before, but it's worth repeating:

Buy in Newark and whenever possible purchase Newark made goods. Keep the money circulating here at home. When you spend money here in Newark it shouts "Till We Meet Again." When you send or take money to another city it sighs, "Farewell Forever."

Spend your money at home. This means more funds for civic improvements and betterment of the town means growth and increased happiness for all its people.

Hero Succumbs Suddenly Yesterday

CONSCIOUS TO THE END

Seized With Attack of Acute Indigestion After Luncheon and Dies in Two Hours.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Most official Washington did not learn until today of the sudden demise last night of Rear Admiral Evans. It caused a great shock and many were the expressions of sorrow to the aged wife and family of the brave old soldier. Lieut. Commander Frank T. Evans, scheduled to sail yesterday for the East Indies, was detained until today. He learned of his father's death late last night and immediately boarded a train for home.

Funeral arrangements were made today. There will be services tomorrow afternoon at the All Soul's Unitarian church the same as attended by President Taft. The pall bearers have not yet been chosen.

The cortege will consist of four companies of marines, three companies of blue jackets from the Washington navy yard, one battalion of artillery and an entire battalion of midshipmen from Annapolis.

The interment will take place in the Arlington National cemetery in a plot the admiral selected himself several years ago.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, "Fighting Bob" to an admiring nation, died suddenly late yesterday at his home in this city. Acute indigestion ended the career of one of the most popular officers in the navy. He was 65 less than two hours.

Admiral Evans, born 65 years ago in Floyd county, Va., arose Wednesday apparently in better health and spirits than he had enjoyed in some time. For years a sufferer from old wounds received in the civil war and from recurrent attacks of rheumatic gout, the aged fighter seemed to have shaken off the burden of his advancing days. He displayed high spirits at breakfast and ate a hearty luncheon at noon.

While in his library at 2 o'clock the admiral was stricken. Instantly his family sent for Dr. S. S. Adams who, on his arrival, found the patient in great pain. After treatment, Admiral Evans fell into a restless sleep and it was thought that the danger was passed. Shortly after 4 o'clock, however, he awakened and, raising himself with difficulty, announced that he was choking.

"I cannot get my breath," he said, and sank back. At 4:45 o'clock he died, conscious to the end.

At his bedside at the time of his death were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank E. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a Lieutenant commander in the navy, now on duty on the torpedo boat destroyer Monahan at Boston. The only other member of his immediate family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the armored cruiser North Carolina.

The news spread with great rapidity and caused a profound shock in official circles. President Taft was one of the first to express his grief and condolence. He said:

"Admiral Evans was one of the most successful squadron commanders we have had in the navy for a long time. He was a rigid disciplinarian, of quick decision and admirably advised in the intricacy of the machinery of cruisers and battleships and skilled in drilling them. I am very sorry to hear of his death."

Admiral Dewey was so overcome that he could utter but a few words. "I am shocked beyond measure at the sudden death of my life-long friend, Admiral Evans," was all he could say.

Secretary Meyer paid this tribute to the officer's memory:

"By the sudden death of Admiral Evans the country loses one of its"

WHERE DO THE BUSINESS MEN OF NEWARK STAND?

The wets claim in the local papers that the business men of Newark are united in the opinion that the Rose Law has been a failure, and that almost to a man they are demanding relief from present intolerable conditions. They also say that they have several hundreds of the leading business men of Newark in their organization. These statements have caused considerable indignation among the business men, who say that they are not true.

It is absolutely certain that very few business men have signed the wet petition, surely if they were convinced that Local Option is a failure and that the open saloon would produce better conditions, they would have signed it.

It is absolutely certain that prominent business and professional men are actively working to keep the county dry, and are contributing to the Local Option League. I cannot therefore be true that the business men of the city are unitedly working to vote the county wet, and they have a right to resent the efforts of the wet organization to put them in a false attitude.

The wets can prove their assertion in but one way and that is by publishing the names of the members of their organization. If they do not do this they will stand discredited in the eyes of the voters of Licking County for trying to mislead them.

A number of the business men have signed a statement that they are not members of the "wet" organization. If others desire to sign it they can do so at Local Option headquarters, 23 1-2 S. Third St.

Mr. Voter, the question for you to decide on January 6 is. Are you going to approve of the lynching of Carl Etherington? There is no denying the fact that that tragedy blackened the fair name of our city and county throughout the nation, and everywhere they are anxiously awaiting to learn whether or not we will, at the coming election, redeem ourselves.

Frank Agnew, 55 N. Morris street, informs the Local Option committee that he was induced to sign the wet petition by misrepresentation, that he asked the wets to remove his name and they promised to do so, but did not. Other complaints of the same nature have come to the committee.

The wets are reiterating the statement that the Rose Law is a failure because it has not been enforced. The law is not responsible for that, but the officials who have been false to their oaths. In a recent issue the Advocate said, "Uncle Sam had money, muscle men, munitions and motive to back him up, but it took him more than eight years to bring the Beef Trust face to face with a jury." If that is the case we should not be discouraged if the violators of the Rose Law have not all been put out of business in 3 years.

Mr. Voter, do not think that by voting this county wet you can settle this question, because you have then but simply prolonged the fight and deferred the day of actual settlement, because no question is actually settled until it is settled right. And so with the saloon question, it has now reached this high state of agitation and it is going to continue until the saloon is absolutely prohibited.

The people of Pataskala and the west end of the county do not need any further evidence to convince them that the influence of liquor reaches beyond the person who drinks it. The tragedy that happened in their midst last spring in which a young girl on her way from school was murdered in cold blood by a man who was drunk, is still in their minds. Judge Nicholas in sentencing Moreland to twelve years in the penitentiary said that he would not have taken the life of the girl unless he had been intoxicated. The people at that end of the county will not vote to restore the saloon.

Reports from "dry" counties which recently voted "wet," shows that many temperance men did not go to the polls. In one precinct in Columbiana county, forty "dry" voters shirked their duty. That county voted "wet" by less than one thousand majority in a total vote of 17,000. Clinton N. Howard, well says: "It is the duty of the Christian citizen to vote. The good man who fails to vote is an undesirable citizen; he is worse than that, he is a dangerous citizen. Why do we lose in so many fights against corrupt men, entrenched wrong and the lawless saloon? Because so large a number of good citizens do not take the trouble to vote. Let every good citizen in Licking county vote on Saturday, and vote dry."

Father Phelan, editor of the "Watchman," a Catholic paper published in St. Louis, having received a copy of the circular issued by the "Liquor Dealers' Benevolent Association of Missouri," talks to these liquor men in the following candid fashion: "We must be candid with those gentlemen, and candor compels us to tell them that they are the most despised class of men in this state and in every state in the Union. Their business is disreputable, and they are thoroughly disreputable themselves. For a half century the people have been devising means of getting rid of them."

YOUR STOMACH TROUBLE WILL BE OVER WITH

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing; after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, burp or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Bilio-sickness, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quietly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Panes Diapiesin will cost fifty cents at any Pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of Indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness, or Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Panes Diapiesin will regulate any out-of-order Stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly without any loss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

Mother Goose Melodies Brought Down to Date

Pat-a-cake, pat-a-cake, Baker's Man— And then quit your work and rush the can; It takes nearly all of your wages to buy A little bad booze—since the town went dry.

Ding-dong bell! Pussy-cat's in the well, Or hid in some cellar—it's hard to tell; For pussy's a tiger—as blind as a bat, In an old dry town. Do you know where she's at?

Ride a cock horse to Banbury Cross— To vote on the town the adoption Of an imbecile brat they don't want, and all that; And christen it—"Local Option."

Ba, ba, Black Sheep. Have you any wool? Not if I know myself—not a handful; For I've been fleeced since the sun went down, By an old blind tiger—in a local option town.

Don't fail to hear Hon. C. Homer Durand, of Cincinnati, at the Newark Auditorium, tomorrow, Friday evening. This will be the closing rally of the campaign. Subject: "Why the Rose Law Has Been a Failure."

Ex-Mayor Jimmy Rice of Canton, Ohio, stated the other night that the success of our Board of Trade in bringing new industries to Newark does not depend altogether upon the inducements that are held out in the way of cheap fuel, railroad facilities, etc.

There is a new demand made upon a city now that was not so much regarded a few years ago, and that is what are its moral, intellectual and spiritual advantages?

That's it exactly, Mr. Rice; and we leave it to the voters, whether the people of Newark and Licking County have been benefitted, either morally, or intellectually, or spiritually, through three years' experience with prohibition under the Rose Law.

The fact is that large employers of labor have a hard time holding their skilled mechanics in cities where prohibition is enforced.

The records of the Norfolk & Western Railway show that there have been more changes among the mechanics employed in its Portsmouth, Ohio, shops during the three dry years, than in all the other shops of this great railway system combined. Why? Because these men, when they are through with their work, did not have the liberty to live and enjoy themselves as they were accustomed to.

A large shoe manufacturer in Cincinnati said recently that when Portsmouth was dry, he had no trouble inducing shoemakers to come to Cincinnati; but now he says it is very difficult to get shoemakers to leave Portsmouth. Why? may we ask.

Temperance is born of common sense and kindness. Prohibition is born of bigotry and revenge.

Temperance is long-suffering, kind, gentle, charitable. Prohibition is restive, resentful, vindictive, harsh.

Temperance looks upon the poor man in the gutter and is moved to tears. Prohibition sees the unfortunate down and adds to his misery the vitrol of abuse and vituperation.

Temperance makes the home beautiful and free, a retreat and refuge from the dangers of the outside world. Prohibition invades its sacred grounds, destroys its privacy and seclusion, and exposes the treasures of home to the hirelings of the law.

Temperance is eternal and will go down the ages working its miracles of good among men. Prohibition is a passing fad and will die with the fanaticism that gave it birth.

Interviews With Business Men On Coming Election

Several prominent men in Newark who signed the declaration of principles circulated by the Citizens' league were interviewed regarding their exact position in connection with the coming election under the Rose law. Several of these interviews are given here:

HENRY SCHEIDLER.

Mr. Henry Scheidler, president and manager of the Scheidler Machine Works company, and one of the city's foremost business men has furnished the following interview which speaks for itself:

"It is my judgment that the Rose law comes far from being a temperance measure, and it has been proven that public sentiment is against its enforcement here and I am further convinced there will never come a time that a mayor can be elected in Newark who will enforce the Rose law. The two municipal elections we have had since the county was voted dry forcibly demonstrates this.

"I have no defense to make for the saloons, yet I think conditions are infinitely worse here in Newark, and throughout the county, than they were when the saloons were a taxed institution three years ago. It is certainly unwise that conditions continue as they are at present. The constant agitation is hurting this city. Our school enumeration indicates that we have lost a great many families in the past two years, so I think it is time for a change in the method of handling this matter.

"Believing the regulated saloon to be the lesser of two evils I have pledged my influence to that end, at least, until some real temperance measure is adopted that will forever end this question by knocking the liquor business in the head instead of hammering it on the tail. I am very much in earnest in this matter, and I am confident the Citizens' league will keep faith with its pledge."

MR. JAMES LINEHAN.

"There is just one thing the temperance man has to decide when he votes Saturday, Jan. 6. Any multiplying of words or issues only makes dangerous the losing sight of this one essential thing.

"We may not entirely agree on statistics, but we do all agree that there is substantially the same amount of liquors made, and substantially the same amount sold in Licking county that there always has been.

"This being true, the one thing the temperance voter has to decide is: Is it better this liquor shall be sold in Licking county by bootleggers and kitchen saloons, in the alleys and in the dark, or by well regulated places and watched by the Citizens' league, composed of several hundred of the best citizens of Licking county, who have no interest in anything but the best welfare of our people?"

"We can depend on our city council to co-operate in regulation, in case our county should vote to re-establish the licensed saloon.

"There is one thing to decide only, and only one for Licking county—not for the other counties or other states. We live here—we know conditions here—we know our people. Let us decide for the best conditions for Licking county.

"Every bootlegger will vote dry this year because he is making money selling free whiskey. This bootlegger vote must be overcome by honest temperance men who will vote wet.

"If every voter could see the appeals that have already come to the Citizens' league to save fathers, husbands and sons from the bootleggers that have been handing them flasks of rotgut whiskey, making them drunkards and to save homes that have been broken up by the kitchen saloons; if you could see these places, every man would vote wet and put the several hundred or more licensed and unlicensed bootleggers and kitchen saloons out of business forever.

GEO. B. SPRAGUE.

The situation is so abnormal as to make it difficult to discuss or comment on, running through what would seem to be good intentions on both sides of the question, there seems to be an underlying selfishness or ulterior motive that is getting more and more apparent. If, for instance, the Rose law is a failure in Licking county, one would think that those who espouse it would yield a trifle and show a disposition to look the situation squarely in the face and for the common good of the community, change their course. But, instead of this we find that the Rose law supporters as chipper as ever, after three years of the worst history that has ever befallen any law. With all the saloons and dives wide open and lawlessness on every hand, it would naturally seem that for the good of the community a change of some kind would be conceded. Yet, as already said, in the face of another election, the Rose law supporters are again in the field, saying the same things and making the same arguments which they made three years ago. To my mind the rank and file of the dry element so sidestep the saloon that they fail to understand their real condition and right in the face of the worst mess ever known, positively declare they are in the right, always have been and always will be. To a degree, the saloons in Newark, if things keep on, will go over to the dregs, since under the working of the Rose law they do as they please, pay no taxes and are themselves the beneficiaries of the Rose law. These are hard things to say, but if any man or woman doubts these facts, let them come to Newark and see for themselves. The incoming administration has pledged itself to law enforcement if the town goes wet, and say over their own signature that if kept dry, they will do the best they can.

Wayne Collier, who is to be our director of public safety, is a young lawyer in high repute, and Major Blizzard, a man of equally high reputation, is to be our chief of police. It is inconceivable that these two men will stand idly by and see lawlessness prevail. But that they may have the support of our citizens, a regulated saloon should be permitted, since under the Rose law, with nearly sixteen hundred voters against it, its enforcement has been proven a failure and until our citizens can be educated in the course of time against the saloon evil, their regulation at this time would seem inevitable and beyond question for the best of the community.

MR. W. H. SMITH.

"Many people three years ago voted dry because they were led to believe that the Rose law would bring about temperance and do away with the evils of the liquor traffic. Since then we have had three years of actual experience under the operation of the Rose law. We have had ample opportunities to observe and judge its results.

"I think that it will be conceded by everyone that the Rose law has brought to the people of our county a spirited and disturbed public feeling, that we have not been able to shake off, and it seems to have a death grip on our community. It has engendered among our people bitterness, hatred and the boycott. It has divided the people into two hostile factions, disrupted churches and families and no one can imagine the sorrow and distress it has brought to the hearts of our people.

"More than this the Rose law is an absolute failure as a temperance measure. The reason for this failure is inherent in the law itself. Anyone examining the provisions of this law will see that it is not a prohibition law at all, except to the extent that it prohibits the sale and drinking in the regulated saloon. It authorizes and encourages a different method in trafficking in liquors.

"Under the terms of the Rose law every man and woman in the county can buy and have shipped to every home in the county, liquors in such quantities that every man, woman and child in the county could keep drunk all the time.

"The Rose law makes a whiskey pipe line to every home in the county that can be tapped at will. Now, all this is legal under the Rose law. It says to the purchaser of the whiskey, you can buy this liquor and keep it in your home, but you cannot sell it. However, his neighbors and friends come in and ask for a drink. They don't want to sponge and offer to pay for it. He may first refuse, but finally yields, and accepts the money in exchange for the liquor.

"He soon finds that he is making more money than he ever did in his life in any legitimate business. He orders more liquor, adulterates it and soon you have a full-fledged 'speakeasy' or 'bootlegger'.

"The Rose law puts the temptation to sell liquor in many homes and as long as the law remains as it is now, many will yield and become law-breakers.

"All good citizens are in favor of temperance. Some object to the open saloon. It has its evils, too, but you must remember if we get rid of the present unbearable conditions, the law of Ohio will not permit us to have anything but the open saloon. We must choose between the two; we have no other alternative. Therefore, it is the part of wisdom and good citizenship to prefer the regulated saloon, for the system of regulation will lessen the evils of intemperance. (adv.)

ROBBERY

man McClure arrived they hurriedly investigated the interior of the store, secured a good description of the men as possible in the limited time and then started on a systematic search of the city.

Patrolman Hurlbath was called from his beat and placed in charge of the store until the arrival of the proprietor, F. J. Pratt.

Mr. Pratt was at the Capheum theatre at the time and a messenger was sent to the theatre to notify him. He hurried to the store and in a few moments his assistant, Eugene McCarthy, had arrived. The two men then commenced an investigation to learn what the extent of the loss would be.

To an Advocate representative at the store Wednesday evening, Mr. Pratt stated that he was unable to place an intelligent estimate on the value of the stolen property, as it was difficult to tell what had been placed in the window early in the week and what had been sold from it since the inventory of the display was made.

Today Mr. Pratt stated that while located on the square, he carried burglary insurance in a jeweler's protective association, but after moving to the Y. M. C. A. building he had dropped the insurance. He stated that the fact that his former location, having a rear door which was difficult to watch, prompted him to protect himself, but after moving to the new location, the rear door was so prominent that the thought of the insurance against burglary was unnecessary.

It has been the custom of Mr. Pratt's assistant, Mr. McCarthy, to go to the store each night about 9 o'clock and remove the diamonds and other valuable articles from the window and place them in the safe. It was thought perfectly safe to leave the valuables in the window while the people were still on the street.

The police were informed that three suspicious characters have been loitering about the city for several days. The attention of Charles Henry was attracted to the men and in a conversation with them, Mr. Henry asked the men what their business was.

They told Mr. Henry that they were salesmen for a jewelry firm and that they were calling on their trade in Newark. They told him that they sold goods to Mr. Pratt and to Mr. Remick, the Arcade jeweler.

The attention of Mr. Pratt was called to them Wednesday afternoon by Mr. Henry, as the trio stood in front of the International station. He immediately stated that none of the men had ever sold him goods, but even then it was not thought that the party had evil designs on Mr. Pratt's store.

The description of the man in the store and the two men on guard outside, as related by Mrs. Weakley, tallies with the description of the trio seen by Mr. Reilly.

The finding of the butchers' steel at the rear of the door, used by the burglars to effect an entrance, caused the theory to be advanced that the trio has been responsible for the large number of petty jobs of burglary in the city in the past few days and that these "outside" jobs were done to attract the attention of the police department away from the central part of the city, so the operators could have free rein.

The Pratt store was flooded with inquiries today from people who had left valuable articles of jewelry there for repairs. Mr. Pratt stated that none of this property was taken. Most of it was locked in the safe, beyond the reach of the burglars.

The burglar paid no attention to anything other than that in the big window and the show cases were not disturbed.

In relating to the Advocate the story of the burglary, Mrs. Weakley said:

"Accompanied by my little niece, Hazel Swan, a child of 13 years, I passed the Church street door of the Pratt store at about 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. At that time I noticed two roughly dressed men standing in the doorway. It did not occur to me that they were trying to open the door, but that they had stepped into the shadows and were drinking. My niece and I walked through the Arcade and from there to the Sniata confectionery, where we stopped for a few moments. Returning, we passed the Pratt store shortly after 8 o'clock and this time noticed two men standing near the curb in front of the store. One of the men was quite tall, had light hair and mustache and wore an overcoat. The other was below medium height and of a dark complexion and wore no overcoat. Looking into the window we saw a man hastily picking up the articles on display and putting them into a small oilcloth bag which he held in his left hand.

"Oh look at the man taking the things out of the window," said my niece.

"It is probably the proprietor putting them into the safe for the night," I replied.

"Because of the early hour and the publicity of the place, the thought that a robbery was being perpetrated did not occur to me. Then Hazel remarked at the speed with which the man was working and the carelessness with which he placed the jewelry in the bag. I answered that we would watch and see if the man went to the safe. I noticed that the man knocked at the window, but without replacing it, went steadily at his work. I could not see his face as his head was lowered.

"Suddenly he scooped up the contents of a box of bracelets and then jumped over the railing at the rear of the window and ran to the rear of the store. In jumping he kicked the shade from a lamp and at once

I realized that a robbery was being committed. We ran to the corner of the building and saw the man disappear in Elmwood court. The two men who had been standing in front of the store turned and walked down Church street in a very leisurely manner. A small boy was passing and I told him to get an officer, then I told a man whom I met. The man could find no officer, so I ran to the Y. M. C. A. office and had the clerk on duty there telephone to police headquarters and in a short time the officers arrived on the scene."

S. S. KRESGE IS TO OPEN BIG NEWARK STORE

Detroit Merchant Who Operates 72 Store Has Leased Room in Arcade with Big "L"

Mr. S. S. Kresge, whose Five and Ten Cent Stores are to be found in every important city in America and who stands in the same class with Kirby, Knox and Woolworth, leaders in this line of merchandising, is about to open a store in Newark.

For the past three years Mr. Kresge has been seeking an entrance to Newark but delayed his coming until a room of suitable size and location could be secured. He will have a store here of over 5,000 feet of floor space not including a large basement space for stock.

Mr. Kresge was in town a few days ago and secured a lease on the room at corner of Arcade and Third, the room formerly occupied by Meridith Brothers, clothing. In addition to this space which has a frontage of 126 feet on the Arcade, Mr. Kresge got a large "L" leading from the Arcade south to the alley between the Newark Trust Building and the Doty House and extending from the rear of Collins' drug store, Bader's barber shop and Bader's restaurant to the Automatic Telephone building. The work of remodeling the "L" and connecting it with the Arcade is about to be done. The "L" in itself gives Mr. Kresge nearly 2000 square feet of selling space.

In order to secure the required space leases were obtained by the Arcade Realty Company for Mr. Kresge from both Messrs. W. D. Fulton and Frank J. Bader. Mr. W. F. Holley of Detroit, where the Kresge store and offices occupy an entire five story building is in town arranging the work of alteration and is planning to open the store on February 20.

Mr. Kresge now operates 72 stores, having a store in every city in America of 100,000 or more inhabitants. In Philadelphia he has three in Cleveland two, including the largest store of the kind in the world, a store of 38,000 square feet of floor space. Other cities in Ohio that have Kresge stores are Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo, Youngstown, Dayton and Zanesville. Mr. Kresge takes the entire output of certain factories and maintains headquarters in Brooklyn for his imports. Mr. Holley promises to give Newark an up-to-date, progressive store and while here has arranged to make the store attractive and convenient for the public.

CLERGY AND REPUBLICANS CLASH IN SPAIN

Lisbon, Jan. 4.—Emsuing on the punishment of the patriarchs of Lisbon, Manager Anthony Vello, whom the Portuguese government ordered to be expelled for two years, all Portuguese bishops today proclaimed independence of the government. The minister of justice in reply declared that if they persisted in refusing to recognize civil authority they would all be expelled.

The expulsion of the patriarchs caused much disturbance in the capital today. More than 10,000 people formed in line and visited the home of Vello, where they offered condolence. The Republican organization formed a band of 4,000 manifestants, who marched to the patriarchs' home and rushed on them, shouting, "down with the monarchists," "death to the clergy."

Many were injured and a large number of arrests were made.

AFFIANT FAILED TO SPECIFY IN PLEA FOR WARRANT

According to Dr. H. R. Emery, he and his assistants are not discouraged at their unsuccessful search of the Bismark Cafe on Wednesday afternoon.

After the warrants for the Bismark raid had been issued Wednesday one of the raiding party asked for a warrant for the search of the Doty house. The warrant did not specify whether the restaurant, the barber shop, or the hotel proper was to be searched, and did not give the name of the proprietor. Because of these deficiencies the mayor was unable to issue the desired warrants.

When Dr. Emery and his party left the mayor's office they signified their intention of returning Thursday with further warrants.

MANY RAIL ORDERS.

The industrial and financial worlds alike are awaiting with interest the placing of rail orders for delivery during 1912 by the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads. The latter road will make contracts within a few days, it is said, and the tonnage required is rumored to be 160,000 tons, 10,000 tons over the 1911 requirements. President McCreary of the Pennsylvania, has stated that all the reports from the divisions are not yet in, but that he will take up the rail questions shortly after the first of the year. Last year the road ordered 180,000 tons, but his definite idea of the tonnage to be contracted for the coming year has been gained. The orders are important in themselves but gain in importance because other great railroads await the placing of these orders before entering the market themselves, making the two eastern trunk lines the pace-makers for the carriers and an index to the steel market of the new year.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Roasted Peanuts Hard to Digest.
Peanuts eaten raw, though chewed, are not particularly objectionable if relished. When peanuts are roasted they are usually more or less burned. The large amount of fat which they contain is itself decomposed, and irritating acids are produced.
Roasted peanuts are very difficult of digestion. They are, in fact, fried in their own fat.

The thing that most greatly worries
the protected woolen manufacturers of the country is this present season of tribulation is the showing of the Taft Tariff Board investigation. The board finds that the cost of production in the United States is largely increased by the use of ancient and worn-out machinery. With up-to-date machines better goods at lesser cost could be produced. Instead of providing such machines, the turn-out of cloth has been cheapened by manufacturers through large use of shoddy and other adulterants. Under the cover of prohibitory duties these fabrics have been forced upon buyers in the domestic markets.

The Manchus, who have been gathering the spoils of conquest in China
for hundreds of years, are now asked to go down into their pockets and pay whatever cost may arise from the effort to suppress the revolt against their further rule. This is a very fair proposition on the part of the Chinese Prime Minister. If the realm be not worth the cost of its keep the Man-chus should step.

The increasing cost of living is a problem that is troubling the economists as well as the masses of consumers in all civilized countries. No country is exempt from the upward movement of commodity prices. It is a noteworthy fact, however, that prices are relatively higher in Germany, France, the United States and other countries where trade is crippled
by high protective tariffs than in Great Britain, where a tariff for revenue only is collected.

Knees Became Stiff

Five Years of Severe Rheumatism
The cure of Henry J. Goldstein, 11 Barton Street, Boston, Mass., is another victory by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
This great medicine has succeeded in many cases where others have utterly failed. Mr. Goldstein says: "I suffered from rheumatism five years, it kept me from business and caused excruciating pain. My knees would become as stiff as steel. I tried many medicines without relief, then took Hood's Sarsaparilla, soon felt much better, and now consider myself entirely cured. I recommend Hood's."
Get it today in usual liquid form or shoddy tablets called Sarsapabs.

To one so well versed in homiletics
as Theodore Roosevelt assumes to be,
it should have been understood long ago that silence gives consent. There ought to be no doubt about it.

Massachusetts Democrats have been unaccountably tardy about it, but at last Governor Foss has been formally entered as a Presidential candidate.
He has two nicks on his gun.

Governor Osburn of Michigan, says
very neatly of Senator LaFollette that he "has taken up those things which might be termed popular and that contained the least danger to himself."

The Wisconsin aspirant in Ohio recalls the bull on the railroad track;
the obituary remarks about him gave him credit for pluck, but not for sense.

Now if both Taft and LaFollette are to stay in the Presidential race till death stops them, LaFollette being the younger man ought to have a signal advantage.

If one is going to be a congressman
it is much better to be elected from Oregon than from Maryland. The mileage law puts a premium of nearly $2,000 "velvet" on being elected from the states furthest from Washington.

Forty million dollars worth of diamonds were imported in New York in 1911, not counting the ones that came in as lingerie and patent nicotine-absorbing pipes.

Ohio progressives like LaFollette
personally and individually, but officially and collectively they withhold indorsement. Is the Wisconsin man satisfied?

Boston has the highest death rate of any American city with a population in excess of 500,000. The statisticians do not explain whether the blame is traceable to the culture or the cults.

LIVE STOCK RATES ARE REDUCED FOR ROADS SOUTHWEST

Washington, Jan. 4.—Radical reductions of existing freight rates on live stock, packing house, produce and salt yesterday were prescribed by the Interstate Commerce commission to apply to all western and southwestern railroads.

The commission holds that present rates on livestock from points in New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma to Fort Worth, Texas, Oklahoma City, Okla.,
and Wichita, Kansas, are unreasonable; that the existing rates on fresh meats and other packing house products from Ft. Worth, Oklahoma City and Wichita to points in other states
also are unreasonable, and that the rates on salt from the Kansas field to Oklahoma City are unjust.

The findings of the commission, prepared by Commissioner Proctor, are the result of an exhaustive investigation, and affect the rates to all points
east.

Alleged rates on all the commodities are prescribed by the commission
the reductions amounting to an average of approximately 8 per cent. No order is issued at this time by the commission, but the railroads are given until February 1, 1912 in which to put into effect the rates suggested.
If they shall not have done so by that date a mandatory order will be issued to compel them to make the prescribed rates effective. It is expected the carriers will acquiesce.

LITTLE BENNY'S NOTE BOOK

Pew, sed ma last nite, wat a pipe
and pop sed, Are you referring to this pipe.

Its the only wun in the room vizib-
le to the naked eye, ed ma.
I realize that, sed pop, but I kan
see how any intelligent humin becom-
can possibly take offense at the arranger from this pipe. Its sweet he sed, thats wat it is, sweet, and if you say Pew wun the delishis aromer strikes yours nostrils, thares sumthing the matir with yure noze, thats awl.

Nothing of that sawt, sed ma, my noze is awl rite. Wy, she sed, if I didnt have a slit hole I think I shood of fainted away wun I got the first wiff of those orful fumes. In my worst nite mares, she sed, I never smelt anything like that pipe.
O, you didnt sed pop, O, you didnt, well, I shood say you didnt. I have smokted this pipe konstantly for 2 years, he sed, to give it the sweet aromer wich it now pizesses, and

wun you stand thar and make a face
like I dont no wat, and say Pew, I dont wondir that us men refuse to wunmin the rite to vote. Heer, smell it kloser and you rave about the aromer. I hate to see anybody wealering in the mire of ignorance, heer smell it reel klose to your noze, he sed, and tell you youll rave about it.
Its awlmost got me raving awlred-dy, sed ma, Ive smelt it plenty klose
enuff, and if you dont bel the abnoxhis thing out of the windo I'll have to get the house fumergated, pew, O
godniss.
I tell you its a pipe aming a thowsind, sed pop, and you awl to provd to have it in the house.
Id be ashamed to have it in the back yard, match loss the house, sed
ma, and pop sed, Jest for that youll have it in the street. Im going out Wich he did, smoking so hard wile
he was wawking to the door I cood smell
it for a lawing wile, and it smelled awl rite.

REMORSE.

It is vain to weep like thunder over some bad break or blunder, for the past, my friend, is written, and we cannot change the tale, and I always have the wilies when I see some silly Billys putting up their lamentations at the place where people wail. It is morbid, it is ghoulis, to be brooding over the foolish, idiotic stunts you've pulled off in the days that are no more; better look ahead and ponder on the bright days over yonder where the country of the future waits with streps on its shore. Many wayward paths I've journeyed; I have tilted, I have tourneyed with the ogres and the monsters, I have wasted golden years;

but you never see me sitting all forgetful of my knitting, resurrecting
ancient blunders and bedeviling them with tears. Podlish are the tears that blind us for the time that lies behind us, wasted are the sighs we're heaving for the phantoms of dead
days; for the sun is shining o'er us and the time that lies before us is the time we ought to think of—so got busy, fifty ways!

Wayne B. Wheeler Newark's Enemy

A gentleman of a neighboring city in Newark Wednesday evening, had his attention called to the article in the papers showing the enmity of Wayne B. Wheeler to our city. The gentleman said: "I have known Newark intimately for 25 years,
have admired its progressiveness and popular business citizens. When Wayne B.
Wheeler came to my town to deliver one of his 'dry' speeches I went to hear him. But when he devoted nearly all his time to villi-fying Newark with reckless falsehoods, holding it up as a sink hole of depravity and an unfit place for decent people to live in,
I showed my disgust and disapproval of his tirade of abuse of the city by abruptly getting up and leaving the meeting. I knew what he said about Newark was false, but the majority of his audience did not know it and were misled by his slanders. The enmity of such a man to Newark cannot fail to do the city great injury." (Adv.)

REPUDIATES ACTION OF ANTI HARMON MEN

Marysville, O., Jan. 1.—The Democratic Executive committee of Union county met in Marysville last night and repudiated the action taken by the so-called progressive Democrats at a meeting held in Columbus who are opposed to Governor Harmon as the Democratic candidate for president in 1912.

The committee condemns the work of Wm. W. Durbin of Kenton, and State Senator Frank Dove, saying they do not represent the people or party
in this congressional and senatorial district and that Durbin is sore on Harmon because he did not get some political appointments which he asked for.

GOV. WILSON TALKS TARIFF IN NEW YORK

New York, Jan. 4.—Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey addressed
the National Democratic club here
last night on the topic "The Democratic Party and the Tariff." Once again, Mr. Wilson said, the tariff had become "the chief and most critical question of a campaign which must decide the policy of our government, not only in this great matter, but in regard to a score of things which reach the general adjustments of our life."

He continued in part:
"Our tariff policy has not for several generations been based upon any principle whatever, but only upon a system of favoritism, of patronage, of arbitrary fosterage by the Federal government."

"The strength of American industry lies in the skill and intelligence of the American workman, and the capacity of American superintendents and managers; and the efficiency and glory of the workman depends upon all the moral and physical elements involved in the circumstances of his employment."

"If this country is to be the snug harbor for those who are at a disad-vantage in the markets of the world,
why should it not also by the convenient method of combination, be a refuge for those who are also at a disadvantage in the markets of America itself. Are there not evidences that it has become just that? Have not great combinations recently effected in this country brought about just such a result? Of a dozen mills or factories brought together in a single trust or combination, there is always a very considerable variety in the so-called cost of production. In some the machinery has not been brought up to date; the plant is not built in a way to lend itself to the most efficient methods of production; the market is not quite so accessible; the source of raw materials is more difficult of access. Again and again it has happened that after the combination was effected the less efficient factories and mills were closed down and only the more efficient continued in operation;
but the business as newly constituted
had to carry the cost of the original merger of the inefficient mills and factories. They were probably put into the combination at a figure greatly exceeding their real value."

"This figure enters into the issue of the securities of the combination; the profits must be made upon those figures if the stockholders are to get dividends; and so the country must carry for an indefinite period inefficient establishments which have been actually closed and put out of business. And this very process itself shows the futility of any attempt to have duties upon 'cost of production.'"

"When America was in her infancy,
when her resources were undeveloped,
when her industries were at their beginning; there was much to be said
for a system of artificial stimulation and protection. But long after that period was passed, and that reason for the maintenance of the system of protection cut away, it was maintained
upon other theories and with other purposes, and it has grown until it has become a veritable incubus, not merely upon the consumer, but upon
the resources of the country itself;
and on it have been built up great combinations and monopolies, which have drawn upon themselves universal condemnation."

"We are rich enough, we are safe enough in our prosperity, we are sure enough of our capacity, of our skill,
of our resourcefulness, to set ourselves free at least. We are ready now to our majority to return to the uses of government of which the mature can approve. Taxation must never be used for the benefit of some of the expense of others. The power of the government must never be loaned to those who can not sustain themselves.
The only legitimate object of taxation
is revenue for the support of the government."

A Way to Help Newark

Patronize your home merchants and home mechanics. The more money you spend away from home, the poorer you will be.—From Last Night's Advertisement of the Board of Trade.

In spite of this advice, the "Drys" ask you to send your money away from home when you want to purchase beer or whisky.

Why is it that there is more agitation, bitterness and ill-feeling among the people in the dry counties of Ohio than in the wet counties? Let the champions of the Rose Law answer

During its entire existence as a municipal corporation, Newark never had to bow its head in shame, until the Rose Law went into effect in Licking county.

DON'T BE DECEIVED

You want Newbro's Herpicide, the remedy that has been tried, has stood the test of time and now has more satisfied users than all other similar preparations combined. ## ELECTRIC SIGNS NOW THE SLOGAN

No one is more clearly identified with the boosting of Greater Newark than is C. A. McNeal, the well known electric sign man, for nothing does more toward boosting a city than electric signs, as we all know by the example set us by all large cities.

Mr. McNeal is a firm believer in letting your light so shine that the passing world will know that you are doing a successful business at the old stand. Judging by the increase of electric signs throughout the city, the business men are beginning to realize the importance and significance of this thing and to appreciate the high class work turned out by Mr. McNeal.

Mr. McNeal has been a resident of Newark for the past eighteen years and ten years of this time has been devoted to the sign business. He has made over fifty electric signs with over 3,000 lamps, adding over 12,000 candle power to the illumination of the streets of Newark. He has kept step with every new advancement in electrical ideas and now is the owner of six patents on improved construction of signs in the United States, Canada and Germany. He has made 90 per cent of the electric signs of Newark and is proud to state that not one has burned out or blown down since.

His signs are inspected and approved by the Ohio Inspection Bureau.

For the past seven years Mr. McNeal has been located at 51-12 South Park place, where you will always find him glad to figure on any kind of electrical signs.

About two years ago he associated himself with Mr. Garrity, who is located with him there and they do a general sign business. Mr. McNeal is a member of the Newark Board of Trade and is ever mindful of the fact that in boosting his own business he can, at the same time, assist much in the progress of Greater Newark. Let Mr. McNeal give you an estimate and design for that new electric sign you need.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN."

First performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which will be seen at the Auditorium theatre, matinee and night, Saturday, in England of which we have a record, took place at the Adelphi theatre, London, Christmas week of 1852. The play was announced for its twenty-seventh performance and, together with "Nell Gwynne" as a spectacular pantomime, it was proclaimed to be "an immense attraction for the holidays" and that in consequence "the free list would be entirely suspended, the public press excepted." The title of the American drama was "Slave Life; or Uncle Tom's Cabin," and it was said in explanation of the liberties taken with the story that it was necessary for the sake of dramatic continuity that three distinct channels of interest should be maintained and blended together, involving the fortunes of Eliza and George, of Uncle Tom and Eva, and of Emmeline and Casey.

A COMPLIMENT FOR NEWARK

The American Lumberman has the following:

"Through the courtesy of the P. Smith Sons Lumber Company of Newark, Ohio, The American Lumberman is in receipt of a very attractive booklet entitled, 'Greater Newark, Ohio,' issued by the Newark Board of Trade. The first section of the booklet is devoted to a description of Newark, dealing with municipal improvements, school advantages, transportation facilities, fuel and power, labor conditions, industries, banking facilities, sewerage system and municipal expansion. Inter-spersed in the descriptive matter are numerous illustrations of scenic and other attractions of Newark, including its public buildings, landscapes, etc.

The second section of the book contains large illustrations of the various manufacturing industries of the city, not the least of which is the home of the P. Smith Sons' Lumber company.

What the city owes to its Board of Trade is demonstrated by its accomplishment during six months; 363 new members were secured in a seven hour campaign, and 650 members in a few days, over 1,000 wagon loads of rubbish were taken out of the city on 'clean-up' day; contracts for 60 miles of good roads in the vicinity of Newark and several miles of cement walks in the city; over 300 trees planted on Arbor day by 4000 school children, 60 cash and merchandise prizes offered for flower beds; $12,000 Country Club house built and plans made by popular subscription for a public library; $60000 house park improvement fund raised; work started on a $50,000 subscription for a city hospital; legislative act secured giving the city possession of the Ohio canal within its limits and passage of a bill permitting the school board to buy or lease playgrounds secured.

Daddy's Bedtime

Dogs That
Rescue Lost Sheep
From the Snow

"SHEPPIE seems to like the snow," Evelyn said. Sheppie had gone out in the snow and was trotting about in the moonlight, seeming to enjoy himself very much. "Sheppie is a collie, and collies can stand a great deal of cold, nor do they seem to mind the snow," said daddy. "They have been used to it in Scotland, where collies come from. There they are taught to take care of the sheep. The sheep in some parts of Scotland are the farmers' chief wealth. In Scotland the winters are very cold. Sometimes the farmer will go to bed, believing his sheep are perfectly safe in their field, to find in the morning that the ground is covered with snow and that in the night the flock has broken loose and wandered off, dear knows where. "The snow is so deep that he would have little chance of finding them but for his clever dog. Man and dog start out together to search for the sheep. The dog runs here and there, sniffing at the snow. By and by he seems to have made up his mind and starts straight ahead, stopping at a drift which will be piled up against some bank. "When his master reaches him the dog looks over the snow until he finds a round hole in it crusted at the sides with frost. "Then he knows he has found his sheep, and, digging down into the snow, the man lifts them out and carries them home, a little hungry, but quite snug and warm. "The sheep huddle against the bank to get out of the wind, and the snow covers them, keeping them as warm as a blanket. Their hot breath makes a hole in the snow through which they can breathe, and the warmth of their bodies hollows out the snow a little inside. There is no danger of their freezing, but if they have been left too long they may starve to death. "In Scotland the dogs are thought of quite as members of the family. In some places they go with the family to church, the dogs having a place of their own to stay in the gallery. They behave very quietly, for they know if they do not they will be put out and punished. The story is told of one church to which came one Sunday a new minister. He was unused to dogs in church, "When he gave out the psalm to be sung he asked the people to rise. "No one rose, and the minister looked surprised. "Go ahead, sir," spoke up an old man in a front pew. "It's to cheat the dogs. "The minister understood when church was out, for as soon as the dogs in the gallery saw their masters and mistresses rise they began to whine and frisk about, showing their joy that church was out and everybody was going home to dinner."

Bootleggers and Speakeasies Cannot Be Regulated

The only arguments presented by the Drys for a continuance of prohibition under the Rose Law, are the manufactured reports of disgraceful saloon conditions in towns where the saloons have come back.

We ask the people in all fairness and candor whether you will be guided in casting your ballots by these highly colored, sensational reports printed in fanatically Dry newspapers, or whether you will take the word of your new Mayor and Safety Director, that the open saloon can be and will be regulated in Newark.

That the bootlegger and speakeasy cannot be regulated is a matter of history in Newark and Licking County.

An article published in the Steubenville Gazette, (a fanatically Dry newspaper), illustrates plainly the familiar truth that laws must be backed by public sentiment to receive respect and enforcement, even at the hands of the "good" citizen.

This newspaper on June 9th, 1910, published the following:

"There are some who will say that no decent man will patronize a speakeasy. If that is true, one-half of the men of Steubenville who come under the head of 'highly esteemed citizens,' who sign checks, sell merchandise, go to church, subscribe to charitable causes and entertain the clergy, are not decent men. The habitue of the first-class Steubenville speakeasy will meet some of the city's best citizens. Furthermore, as he becomes initiated, he will learn that men who are financially and socially looked upon as top-notchers, know that certain speakeasies are running, and that these people wouldn't say anything for the world that might make them good witnesses before a grand jury. Speaking of the grand jury, Jefferson county had one not long ago, members of which drank their favorite beverage, to wit, beer, in a speakeasy that was running wide open at the time. Church members and others, who own buildings in which speakeasies and gambling rooms are conducted, don't want the law enforced."

In the face of this statement, Mr. Voter, which do you prefer? The law-breaking bootlegger and speakeasy, or the open, well regulated tax paying saloon? One or the other is bound to exist in our community. Your vote on next Saturday will not wipe both of them out. Your vote will only decide which one will remain.

From the United States Official Report

| BEER                    | WHISKY                  |
|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1911.....$1,906,817.50 | 1911.....$9,401,902.11 |

| $30,502.50             | $1,399,207.10          |

The above is an extract from the United States Revenue Collector's report for the years 1910 and 1911, for the state of Ohio, showing the dollars' worth of Beer and Whisky manufactured in the state from which the government has collected revenue.

In the state of Ohio for the year 1911 there were 62 dry counties and 26 wet counties.

Where was this almost one and one-half million dollars' worth of whisky sold? Was it in the 26 wet counties? Or was a large part of it sold by bootleggers, speakeasies and blind tigers in our dry counties? How much of this enormous increase has been sold to our boys of Newark and Licking county? We believe the answer can be found if you will travel any road leading out of Newark in any direction. You can find whisky and beer bottles in almost every fence corner and strung along the roadside for miles.

Let the county option advocate answer. (adv.)

CHILDREN INJURED

Ordinary Cathartics and Pills and Harsh Physic Cause Distressing Complaints.

You cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given, except in emergency cases. Ordinary pills, cathartics and purgatives are apt to do more harm than good. They may cause griping, nausea and other distressing after-effects that are frequently health-destroying.

We personally recommend an absolute guarantee. Rexall's Orderlies as the safest and most dependable remedy which we know, for constipation and associated bowel disorders. We have such absolute faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it a our risk.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies commonly completely relieve constipation, except of course when of a surgical character. They also tend to overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition. Three sizes of packages, 10 cents, 25 cents and 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Newark only at our store, The Rexall Store, Frank D. Hall, 19 North Side Square.

FOR TONSILLITIS COLD IN CHEST OR SORE THROAT

A Simple Harmless Remedy That Acts Promptly and Is Easily Applied. All Should Investigate This.

Many people catch cold so easily that exposure to damp night air, cold winds, or being caught in a storm or drizzling rain, means for them either tonsillitis, sore throat, or a bad cold in some form.

This is because the mucous membranes are in a weakened condition and frequent colds cause them to become swollen and inflamed, causing catarrh and other distressing diseases of the air passages.

If you want a simple, harmless remedy that will protect and strengthen the linings of the air passages so they will be able to resist and throw off colds, try the Nostriola Treatment.

Nostriola is a pleasant, harmless, antiseptic, cleansing, healing balm, quickly reaches and opens the air passages, heals the sore inflamed membranes and a pleasant surprise awaits all who use it.

In case of Sore Throat and Tonsillitis apply Nostriola freely to the affected parts and cover with a woolen cloth. Also swallow a piece the size of a small pea every few hours until relieved.

If you are troubled with Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, Head Noises, Asthma, Hay Fever, or other stoppages of the air passages, certainly you should give Nostriola a trial.

Hundreds of people in this vicinity are using the Nostriola treatment. Ask your druggist about it, and get a 25c tube today. You'll wish you had tried Nostriola sooner.

COUNCIL OF GRANVILLE ORGANIZES

J. B. TANNEHILL, DEMOCRAT, ELECTED PRESIDENT PRO TEM IN SPIRITED CONTEST.

Mayor Swartz Delivers Inaugural Address—Resignation of Marshal Evans Accepted.

Granville, Dec. 4.—The first regular meeting of the new council of Granville was held with all six members present. Four of the new members are Republicans and one, J. B. Tannehill, is a Democrat. J. M. Jones, Republican holds over. Messrs. A. L. Armstrong, J. M. Jones, Alfred Lee, J. E. Pratt, F. M. Robinson are the members of the new council.

Judge J. M. Swartz, Democrat, the new mayor, called the members of the council to order.

The first thing in order was the election of a president pro tem, and after a spirited contest in which a large number of ballots were taken, J. B. Tannehill was elected.

Mayor Swartz then announced the following standing committees:

Finance—Jones, Pratt, Tannehill. Municipal Service Committee—Robinson, Lee, Pratt.

Streets and Park—Armstrong, Robinson, Tannehill.

The Mayor appointed as street commissioner Sereno Haynes; fire chief, E. A. Smoots and health officer, Dr. A. K. Pollett. All the appointments were confirmed.

Mayor Swartz delivered his inaugural address in which he asked the cooperation of council with him in doing all they could for Granville, and made a number of valuable suggestions along that line, which will be carried out at the proper time.

The resignation of Ed Evans as marshal of the village was accepted. No appointment has been made but he is under advisement.

The finance ordinance was passed after which council adjourned.

On next Monday at noon the doors of Denison will be thrown open again and the college boys and girls will resume their studies and the holiday vacation will be a thing of fond remembrance. The holiday season this year in Granville has been dull, although a number of dances and small parties and other social affairs have made the vacation a most enjoyable one. But the days are numbered and next week studies will be resumed for the winter semester.

Mrs. Monima Wright, mother of Albert Wright of this place, died at the home of her son near Homer, on Tuesday. Mrs. Wright was one of the oldest women of Licking county, and of the state. She was 93 years old and her death was due to advanced age. Besides her son, Albert, she is survived by two other sons, Emory and Arthur of Homer. Besides these she has quite a number of other relatives scattered over Licking and Franklin counties.

The public schools of Granville resumed duties on Tuesday, January 2, after a week pleasantly spent in festivities. Much good work will be expected of them during the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Roberts, residing a short distance southeast of town, entertained at dinner at their home on Wednesday evening, complimentary to their guest, Miss Fannie Williams, who left for her home in Toledo Thursday.

Mrs. Arthur Cole of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Ward Boyle of Circleville are guests at the home of Mr. E. D. King on Spellman street.

UTICA

Mrs. Cal Warner of St. Louisville is spending a few days with her son of North street, preparatory to occupying the Haslop property in St. Louisville. Sunday evening Mrs. Warner's home burned with practically a total loss. There was an insurance of about $1,000 on the property.

Miss Carrie Friel is very low at this writing, and has little chance of recovery.

About twenty men took possession of Mr. W. L. Fairall's home last Saturday evening and threw out the furniture. Around a handsome leather-bound rocker he found the members of his Sunday school class, who wished to remind their teacher that Christmas was near at hand.

The special evangelistic services begun in the M. E. church a week ago, have been postponed until next Sunday. Rev. Mr. English has been secured to conduct the meeting. The people of Utica are fortunate in securing such a man.

The three high school rooms are being cleaned up and painted in fine shape for the opening of school next Monday. Messrs. Dunlap and Turner are doing the work.

The work of prayer is being observed by the Utica churches.

The school board met in regular session in the office at the school building Monday night. After the regular business was disposed of, the new members were sworn in. The organization resulted as follows: President, Dr. G. T. Blv; clerk, W. L. Fairall. The other members are Cary McClelland, George Trowbridge and Nick Hall.

A few weeks ago the council ordered about 300 feet of hitching rack to be placed on the Wilson property just west of the Town Hall, and south of Melick's new feed barn. This area has been coated with gravel and is now in fine condition for the many rural residents who come to Utica.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kinsweller returned Monday evening from a week's visit with relatives at Kirtlandville.

Messrs. Arthur Penick, Charles Benedict and Robbins Kirkpatrick returned Tuesday to Columbus where they are attending school.

Mrs. Calla Simkins spent New Year's day with her mother, Mrs. Dush of St. Louisville. A bountiful dinner was served the Dush family.

The Star theatre is this week putting on a vaudeville act with special music by a local orchestra.

Messrs. Frank Van Winkle and J. W. McKelvey spent Monday in Newark.

The location of the new Advance glass factory has not yet been determined. Either Utica or Newark will probably get the new plant.

At the shoot held at St. Louisville Monday evening, local men present, C. E. McClelland brought back a turkey as a result of the day's sport.

The new council met Monday evening. The new members are Messrs. Wright and Lloyd. Mr. George Smoot is the new mayor.

What might have been a very serious if not fatal accident occurred Monday morning on the Newark road just below town. While Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Garrison were driving past Smoots' farm the front wheel of the buggy came off, upsetting the rig and dragging the occupants some distance before throwing them out. The horse freed itself from the rig and ran about a quarter of a mile when it was caught. Mrs. Garrison, who was badly shaken up and slightly injured, was brought back to town by Carey McClelland who happened to be near when the accident occurred.

Several of our citizens were aroused from their slumbers Sunday night by the ringing of the various church bells. They thought it the usual fire alarm, but remembering that the new year was at hand they slept peacefully again.

Stops a Deep-Seated Cough in a Hurry

A Family Supply of Unequaled Cough Remedy for 50c—Money Refunded if it Fails.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large proportion of plain syrup—a good ingredient, but one that anyone can make. A pint of granulated sugar, with a pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

A 50-cent bottle of Pinex, mixed in a pint bottle with home-made sugar syrup, gives you a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-mixed for $2.50. There's a clear saving of $2.00. Full directions in package.

And money couldn't buy a quicker, better remedy. Takes hold at once, gives almost instant relief, and usually stops the most obstinate, deep-seated cough in 24 hours. It stimulates the appetite, is slightly laxative and has a pleasant taste—children take it willingly. Splendid for hoarseness, asthma, chest pains, and other throat troubles, and unequalled for prompt results in whooping cough.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of imported Norway White Pine extract, and is rich in quinine and other natural healing agents. Simply mix it as directed with sugar syrup or strained honey, and it is ready for use.

Used in more homes in the U. S. and Canada than any other cough remedy.

Pinex has often been imitated, but never successfully, for nothing else will produce the same results. The genuine is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Certificate of guarantee is wrapped in each package. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Fort Wayne, Ind.

Another Misstatement Nailed

The "Drys" have been publishing statements that conditions in Canal Dover, since the county voted wet, have been worse than they formerly were under the "Dry" regime. That these assertions are false is proven by the following telegram received Thursday morning from H. W. Streb, one of the city's best known business men:

Canal Dover, O., Jan. 4, 1912.
Newark Business Man:

"I will state that we have fewer cases of intoxication now than under the speakeasy and bootlegger system. Thirty-eight saloons opened in Tuscarawas County and only six cases of intoxication throughout the county under the regulated saloon plan. Our people are now happy and contented.

Saved Daughter's Life

This Father Refused to Let His Daughter Die.

Here is a story with a moral that many parents might take to heart: "My daughter was very pale, nervous, thin, and suffered with severe pains in her back, so that we took her out of school. Her flesh became blue and she could not retain her urine. I spent over $400 for medicines, but she grew worse. Finally I bought a bottle of Thompson's Barosma and she began to grow better right away. Five bottles of Thompson's Barosma made a complete cure and today she is a perfectly healthy girl. Thompson's Barosma saved her life, for she was failing so fast that death was not far off."

Frank D. Meeder, Pleasantville, Pa. If you are troubled with backache, sideache, weakness in the back, or any liver or kidney trouble, then it's time for Thompson's Barosma.

Erman & Son sell Thompson's Barosma in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00, and they guarantee it to cure Bright's disease, humors, colored urine, head-aching and all other kidney and liver diseases. It will make anyone vigorous in a few weeks, because it is a great tonic and maker of rich red blood. All druggists.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the few years ago was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only catarrh cure in the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

DRYS AND WETS

(Advertisement.)
Dears Sirs—Let us be honest. It is not the business of the "drys," nor the business of the "wets," to regulate or stop liquor dealers. It is the county and city officials' business to apply and enforce the law.
The Rose law was rightly and honestly made, and the courts have justly decided it so. Wherever the law was enforced the guilty was punished.
An ax will not chop wood. The man must apply it. Then it will.
The saloon, the bootlegger knows, the Rose law will put him out of business, if enforced. So he wants it repealed. Had our officers even tried to enforce this law matters would have been good there and not bad, as they have been.
HERE IS THE QUESTION FOR THE VOTER: Will you vote with the liquor dealers, the lawless, the immoral, the licenseless, or will you vote with a better class?
The wisest and best public-spirited men of all parties are against the saloon.
ABRAHAM LINCOLN and WM. J. BRYAN say the saloon does more harm than good and should be abolished. It is a moral evil that ruins boys and men, and if we let it run by licensing it, we cannot stop it if it does get our boys and men. When once licensed to sell and you ask them not to entice your boy or your husband and not to sell them, the saloon man can tell you to go—somewhere. He has paid his license and is going to sell all he can, no difference to him how much it harms you or your home. Are you going to give him the law, or are you going to keep it on your side so you can use the law if you want it?

"Woe unto him that justifieth the wicked for reward." God will curse anyone who will license an evil for money's sake.

Saloons do not increase prosperity, nor peace. They rob boys and men's characters and cause peace to be disturbed.
This city will sink deeper in shame if she votes wet, but if she votes dry she will rise gloriously throughout the whole state.

The incoming officers are going to enforce the law, so let us keep the law against this great evil and like other laws it will reduce the evils.
The licensed saloon increases drunkenness and misery. Here is the county record for six weeks before and six weeks after Nelsonville, O., voted wet:
Disturbing peace and drunkenness before saloons opened, 9; since the saloons opened, 42.

At Congo, O., the Catholic priest says since saloons opened conditions are among the most deplorable to be found anywhere. The good Christians are pleading and praying for us men to help them remove this great evil and let not disappoint them.
I, for one, will vote for the pure and the good. For so I hope to become.

MORELAND MAY GO TO PEN SATURDAY

Don Moreland, who was sentenced to a term of 12 years in the penitentiary for manslaughter in the killing of Elsie Henthorne, will not be taken to that institution before Saturday, and probably not before the first of next week.

The Blood Upon Our City

(Advertisement.)
That crime which wrung the hearts of men,
Stands up in blood today.
Then rise ye all in God's great name,
And wipe that blot away.
Or it will brand with deeper dye
Thy vitals with its shame.
Ye Business League, ye Board of Trade
What dare ye be answering say?
That blood cries out, it cries to God
In all our land today—
Those mute dead lips—alone, atone!
And wash the sin away.
Answer to God, ye men of greed,
That dying piteous plea:
Answer with arguments thine own,
For God will answer thee.
Answer ye men of vice and lust,
With boastful curses tell.
God speaks; his woe is awful woe.
His curse the curse of hell.

ROBLEY D. EVANS

most brilliant and able officers. It was on account of his ability that President Roosevelt selected him as commander-in-chief of the fleet that cruised around the world. Although on the retired list, he had kept up his active interest in the service, and his unexpected death comes as a shock to the navy.

Former Secretary of the Navy Medical, who happened to be in Washington yesterday pointed out that he had himself given Admiral Evans the command of the Atlantic fleet in its cruise around the world, the choicest assignment ever extended to an American naval officer in time of peace.
"He was practically a sick man when he was selected for this important duty," said Mr. Metcalf, "but his splendid record justified the department in giving him this recognition of his long and efficient service. He was one of the most efficient and capable officers the navy has known and his name has been a household word for many years."

One of the iron links that bound the old navy to the new, a commanding figure in each was Robley D. Evans. He did not take kindly to the sobriquet of "Fighting Bob," for, although of gruff exterior, he was a man of the kindest impulses. Thus it never was used in his presence by his friends. But his dauntless courage in times of great emergency, the grim determination with which he faced overwhelming odds and the stoicism with which he bore his wounds and gazed unflinchingly in the face of death made the title so appropriate that as "Fighting Bob" he was known wherever the English language is spoken.

MR. STURGEON IS STRICKEN AT HIS STORE

Cliff Sturgeon is quite ill at his home at Fifth and Locust streets with what the attending physicians have diagnosed as appendicitis.

While at his store Saturday evening at about 5 o'clock Mr. Sturgeon was taken violently ill and was at once taken to his residence.

At this time his progress is favorable but it is thought that an operation will be necessary to assure his final recovery.

and placed between large masses of rock and miscellaneous material, obtained from steam shovel excavations.

The Spillway of Gatun lake is a concrete opening 1200 feet long 300 feet wide, cut through a hill of rock in center of dam, the bottom opening being ten feet above sea level. There were 225,000 barrels of cement used in its construction. All water from Charges, River and tributaries not used by the canal will be discharged through the Spillway.

There will be six double locks in the canal. Three pair in flight at Gatun with a lift of 85 feet, one pair at Pedro Miguel with a lift of 30 feet and two pairs at Miraflores with a lift of 54 feet.

These locks are 100 feet long and 110 feet wide. Each lock will be a chamber with walls and floor of concrete and mitering gates at each end. The side walls are fifty feet wide at surface of floor and 8 feet wide at top. The middle wall is 600 feet wide and 81 feet high, 4,200,000 barrels of cement being used in their construction.

There are three stories or galleries in center wall, the lower gallery for drainage, the middle for operating wires, and the upper passageway for the operators. The lock gates are steel structures, 7 feet thick, 65 feet long and from 48 to 82 feet high weighing from 300 to 600 tons each.

All vessels will be towed through locks by electric locomotives running on cog rails, laid on top of lock walls, the usual number being four, but that depends on size of vessel. The time going through the locks is three hours ten hours for a vessel to go through the canal, but it may vary according to the size of the vessel. Electricity will be used to operate all gates and valves, power being generated by water turbines from head created by Gatun lake.

The canal commission furnishes to all visitors an automobile sight seeing car, running on railroad through Culebra cut. On this trip of 9 miles, you see 75 miles of railroad, one-mile being torn up and rebuilt each day, 43 steam shovels (made at Marion, and Bucyrus, Ohio.) each loading a train in less than an hour. In one day nearly 200 trains of 21 cars each are loaded and dumped, some hauling dirt from Culebra cut, a distance of 30 miles.

Such system is being used that these steam shovels with their great dippers holding 5 cubic yards or 8 tons of rock seem a part of the sea of human activity.

There are three kinds of cars being used, the flat car, with one high side, which is unloaded by a plow working on a cable, 21 cars being dumped in from 7 to 15 minutes. The steel dump cars which are dumped by compressed air from engine, time being 15 to 40 minutes and those dumped by hand from 6 to 16 minutes, owing to the number of laborers on dump when train arrives.

There are 550 drills on the canal; tripod and mechanical churn; most of these being at work in the cut, drilling the rock for powder blasting. This blasting is done after the men quit work at noon and at night by electrical connection from stations on top of Culebra cut. There are in the Canal service 315 engines, 112 of them being old French engines.

The most difficult problem with which the engineers have to contend is the landslides. There are in all 21 slides along Culebra cut, each covering from one to forty-nine acres making a total of 147 acres. The largest is broken back 1820 feet from the center line of the canal.

The French records state that this slide started in 1884 and has given the Americans a great deal of trouble. Three other slides are also active, each causing trouble. In all, over 9,000,000 cubic yards have been taken from this cut since July, 1905, because of slides and over 3,000,000 cubic yards are still in motion.

The greatest excavation is in Culebra cut through Gold hill, 534 feet deep. There are forty-five feet yet to excavate.

There are 35,000 men employed speaking 45 different languages, and very few born on the isthmus. All trades, all professions, and all temperaments known to civilization are found here with a great human dynamo at their head, Col. George Goethals, represent a $400,000,000 enterprise.

The canal force is recruited and housed by the quartermaster's department, which has two general branches, labor and quarters, and material and supplies. The first branch supplies labor on the zone. The Gold force is made up of the officials, clerical force, construction men, and skilled artisans, almost all being Americans and paid in American money or its equivalent, termed gold employees.

The Silver force is made up of the unskilled laborers of the commission and Panama Railroad Company. These are paid with Panama money, termed silver or "spickity" by gold employees.

The second branch purchases the supplies, about $12,000,000 worth being purchased each year, requiring the discharge of one steamer each day.

The subsistence department is divided into two branches, commissary and hotel. The commissary system has 22 stores in as many zone villages. There are about 65,000 people supplied each day with food, clothing and other necessities. In addition there are plants operated in Cristobal: cold storage, ice making, bakery, coffee roasting, ice cream, laundry, and packing departments, a train leaving there each day delivering these perishable supplies.

The hotel branch has 18 hotels for white gold employees, with meals served for thirty cents each. Sixteen messes for European laborers, who pay forty cents for three meals; 14 kitchens for West Indian laborers,

I Am Willing To Prove I Can Cure You

To That End I Am Giving Away $10,000
Worth of Medicine

In order to show beyond all doubt that I am in possession of a medicine that will cure kidney trouble, bladder trouble or rheumatism, I will this year give away ten thousand dollars' worth of this medicine, and anyone suffering from these diseases can get a box of it absolutely free. All that is necessary is to send me your address.

I don't mean that you are to use a part of it or all of it and pay me if cured. I mean that I will send you a box of this medicine absolutely free of charge, a gift from me to the Uric Acid sufferers of the world, so I can show them where and how they may be cured. I will not expect payment for this free medicine, nor would I accept it now or later if you sent it. It is free in the real meaning of the word.

For twenty-five years—a quarter of a century—I have been trying to convince the public that I have something genuine, something better than others have for the cure of such born, chronic rheumatism, for torturing kidney backache, for annoying calls to urinate. But it is hard to convince people—they try a few things unsuccessfully and give up all hope and refuse to listen to anyone thereafter. Happily, I am in a position now to demonstrate that I don't ask them to spend any money to find out. I don't ask them to believe or assume, even to take the word of reliable people, but all I ask is that they allow me to send them the medicine at my own expense. That is sure, I have a medicine that cures these diseases.

I don't ask them to spend any money to find out. I don't ask them to believe or assume, even to take the word of reliable people, but all I ask is that they allow me to send them the medicine at my own expense. That is sure, I have a medicine that cures these diseases. To this end I have set aside ten thousand dollars, which will be used to compound my medicine. Much of it is ready now to be sent out, all of it fresh and standard. There will be enough for all sufferers, though there be thousands of them. And anyone who needs it can get some of it free. But in order that I shall know that you have a disease for which this medicine is intended, I ask you to send me a few lines stating your symptoms. If you have any of the symptoms in the list printed here you need my medicine and if you will write me I will gladly send you a box of it free with full directions for your use. Look the symptoms over, see which symptoms you have, then write me about as follows: "Dear Dr. I notice symptoms number"—here put down the numbers, give your age, full address, and send it to me. My address is Dr. T. Frank Lynott, 5082 Occidental Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

The ten thousand dollars I am spending for the compounding of my medicine is only a part of the money I am devoting to this cause, for the package of medicine I send you will be fully prepaid at my expense. From any standpoint you view this medicine, no expense or obligation. Just tell others who you know are suffering who sent you the medicine that cured you.

I am promising to give away ten thousand dollars' worth of medicine, and I will do that; I am promising to send any sufferer who writes me a box of this medicine, and full directions free of charge, and I will do that.

DR. T. FRANK LYNOTT
who is giving away $10,000 worth of medicine.

I can say further that this medicine has been vouched for according to law as complying in every detail with all requirements. It will stop rheumatism, it will stop pain and backache, it will stop too frequent desire to urinate, it will heal, soothe and strengthen. You will be better in every way for having taken it. There is not an ingredient that can injure; not one but will benefit. All that ask is that you use it yourself so that you may be personally convinced.

Owing to the large number of requests, I have had ten thousand more copies of my medical book printed. This book is new and up to date and contains complete descriptions, symptoms, causes, effects and cures of kidney, bladder and rheumatic diseases. All who write for the free medicine will be sent a copy of this grand illustrated medical book, the largest ever written on these diseases for free and general distribution.

These Are the Symptoms:

where they pay twenty-seven cents for three meals.

There are seven commodious club houses, furnished by commission, under supervision of the Y. M. C. A. which furnish the amusement for the white employees. These buildings are equipped with libraries, reading and billiard and pool rooms, all entertainments are given here and everything that goes to make up a first class Y. M. C. A. is here. This is one of the necessary cog wheels which has helped Col. Goethals to accomplish his purpose.

The commission is not only building the canal from Colon to Panama, building a macadam road, paralleling the canal from Colon to Panama, (now we see some one smile) 16 feet wide, 18 inches of crushed stone, similar to our United States limestone, being used, also all principal streets in town along the Zone are macadamized, having cement curb and gutters. Branches are being built to the zone line. The Republic of Panama is extending these roads to all their principal towns, using convict labor.

CAVALIER IS A BRAND NEW IDEA

Just as the New Year arrives, Frank Munsey announces the latest idea in magazine publishing—the "Cavalier," formerly a monthly, to be issued weekly, and in standard magazine form.

This step is the widest departure in magazine publishing in years. The success of the venture is assumed because of the great demand for the "Cavalier" as a monthly. As a weekly it will win immense popularity with fiction lovers.

One of the notable features of the "Cavalier" will be the start of a new serial story each week—fifty-two during the year. In addition will be six or eight hundred short stories.

NEW SANITARY OFFICER NAMED

D. W. Hayes, the sanitary policeman, has tendered his resignation and Dr. W. H. Knauss, the health officer, has appointed John W. Adams to succeed him. The law provides that the health officer apply to the Civil Service Commission for a list of names of those who have passed the necessary examination and are therefore eligible. At present Mr. Adams was the only man besides Mr. Hayes who was qualified and his appointment resulted.

John Zimmerly has been named as sealer of weights and measures to succeed Frank Caine. Mr. Zimmerly will take over the office next Monday when the permanent appointments to city offices go into effect.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

The question arises, Who is responsible for the credit Newark and Licking County get for the prosecution and punishment for the mob violence in Newark on July 8, 1910? The answer is: The Business Men of Newark, who are always looking to the betterment of Newark and Licking County; who are always looking to the interests of our city in a moral, industrial and financial way, looking only to the betterment of the whole people. These same people, or business men, who insisted that those guilty of that crime of July 8th should be punished, are the same business men who are asking the voters of Licking County to vote against County Option Saturday.

FORGERIES ARE INCREASING AT ALARMING RATE

Companies Issuing Insurance Against Such Loss Adopt Stringent Restrictions.

New York, Jan. 4.—So widespread has become the crime of forgery in the United States and so great have been the losses within the last twelve months, that companies issuing forgery insurance have adopted the most stringent restrictions in issuing policies. It was announced today. While no accurate account of the losses has been kept, Albert S. Ottum, an expert on handwriting, estimates that they totalled $1,000,000 through checks and drafts alone during 1911.

The chief new restriction now demanded is that the bank insured shall not open an account with any one not known personally to an officer or director, or whose integrity is not vouched for by a depositor. A favorite method of forgers recently has been to deposit a check, apparently certified, on a bank remote from the depository and withdraw the money two or three days later, or before it is discovered to be a forgery.

HELD CAPTIVES BY ITALIANS

Receivers for Defunct Transportation Company Because Wages Not Paid.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 4.—Two federal court officials, receivers for the bankrupt Smithfield-Marl Clay and Transportation company at Smithfield, Va., were yesterday held as hostages by Italian laborers, who are clamoring for their pay. The receivers, J. L. Herd and John L. Reid, were captured Tuesday. The receivers attempted to take a boat for Norfolk but were forced to return to the hotel. The receivers are not believed to be in immediate danger. The Italians have been demanding the plant of the bankrupt company. The receivers went to Smithfield to assure the laborers that they were making an effort to raise money with which the wages could be paid but the Italians refused to accept the explanation and held the receivers.

Look over the Wants tonight.

MISSING CHECK CAUSES CASE TO BE DISMISSED

The forgery case in which Charles Kennedy is the defendant has been dismissed through lack of evidence. When Kennedy was arraigned before Mayor Swartz a few days ago he was released under a bond of $300 and his hearing was set for Thursday. Later developments have shown that the most important evidence in the case, the check, which it is alleged is a forgery, has disappeared. Because of this and the statement of Mr. Thompson, whose name the check bore, that he would not push the prosecution, the case was dropped.

SWIPED MONEY FROM PORCH

Ralph McAfee, a nine-year-old boy, was brought before the juvenile court Thursday morning to answer to the charge of taking two dollars belonging to Mrs. John Flanagan. Mrs. Flanagan testified that she had placed a dollar bill in a bottle and two dollars in silver on the lid of the bottle, which she placed on the front step for the milkman. The boy was charged with taking the two silver dollars. Probation Officer James Sheridan found the boy on Smith street, and took charge of him. He had spent twenty cents of the money. The court gave the boy a good lecture and after warning him of the penalty that would be meted out should he ever appear before him again, ordered him to return the full amount of money to Mrs. Flanagan, which he did. He was released.
